

Exhibit-“A”

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA

CASSIUS M. CLAY
Plaintiff

VS.

TRACY REEVES, ET AL.
Defendant

Civil Action No.: 05-125 Erie

District Judge McLaughlin

Magistrate Judge Baxter

AFFIDAVIT

Cassius M. Clay, Sr., states under the penalties of 28 U.S.C. §1746 (relating to perjury) that:

1. I am the Plaintiff in the above captioned civil action.
2. In March of 2003, the Accounting Department at the State Correctional Institution at Greensburg started deducting funds from my account and sending the same to the Pennsylvania Support Collection and Disbursement Unit (hereinafter referred to as "PASCDU").
3. I did not authorize the monetary deductions from my institutional account.

4. The Pennsylvania Department of Corrections is not my employer, and therefore, has no authorization to make said monetary deductions from my account.
5. The funds, which were being deducted from my institutional account, were sent to me as a gift from my friends and family, and are not considered "income", further precluding deduction from my institutional account for child support payments.
6. When I attempted to utilize the Department of Corrections Administrative Grievance Procedure to address the fact that the Pennsylvania Department of Corrections is not my "employer" and the funds deposited into my institutional account are not "income", the defendants failed to properly address these issues, only partially addressing the issues I presented for administrative review.
7. The defendants have and continue to base their authority to make said deductions from my institutional account on Department of Corrections Policy, DC-ADM-005.
8. On September 25, 2003, I filed a Petition for Review in the Commonwealth Court of Pennsylvania naming the Pennsylvania Department of Corrections; D.O.C. Business Manager Jack A.

Laughry; D.O.C. Inmate Accountant, Richard Gaydos; D.O.C. Facility Manager, Lawrence P. Benning; which was docketed as 640 MD 2003.

9. Defendants Laughry, Gaydos and Benning were named as Respondents in the aforesaid Petition for Review.
10. After the deductions from my institutional account left me with insufficient funds for postage to effectuate service of the aforesaid petition upon the the respondents via Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested, I requested the respective defendants to advance me funds to effectuate service, or accept personal service.
11. The respective defendants refused to advance me funds to effectuate service, and refused to accept personal service.
12. On December 23, 2003, the Commonwealth Court of Pennsylvania dismissed the aforesaid petition for failure to effectuate proper service.
13. Beginning on December 22, 2002, the respective defendants began tampering with my incoming and outgoing mail.
14. The tampering consisted of, inter alia, Defendant Brimmer not informing me that a $150.00 money order which was sent to me was returned to sender; various incoming and outgoing legal documents being delayed and/or intercepted; and my incoming and outgoing mail being copied and circulated throughout the prison.

15. I hereby incorporate all statements and Exhibits within my Complaint into this affidavit, as if completely set forth herein at length, and state that all statements made in the Complaint and this affidavit are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information and belief.

16. I understand that false statements made herein are subject to the penalties of 28 U.S.C. §1746 (relating to perjury).

BULLETIN

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania • Department of Corrections

TO: Executive Staff Superintendents Boot Camp Commander Regional Directors	Policy Subject: Inmate Mail and Incoming Publications
	Policy Number: DC-ADM 803-1
	Policy Issue Date: December 2, 2005
Date of Issue: November 29, 2005	Authority:  Jeffery A. Beard, Ph.D.	Effective Date: January 1, 2006

In order to assist with rehabilitation and treatment objectives, reduce sexual harassment and prevent a hostile work environment, inmates will not be permitted to receive or possess pornography, as defined below. As of the effective date of this bulletin, inmates will no longer be permitted to obtain a new or to renew an existing subscription to pornographic magazines or to order pornographic books.

Inmates will be able to turn in or mail out any pornographic materials in their possession through January 1, 2007. After that date, pornography will be considered contraband; it will be confiscated and destroyed and inmates will be subject to a misconduct for possession of contraband.

DC-ADM 803, "Inmate Mail and Incoming Publications," Section VI.F. 3. b. Obscenity/Pornography (7) is being revised, and the following is being added:

(7) where the material depicts bestiality, masturbation, sadomasochistic behavior, or bondage;

New language is being added as Section VI.F. 3. c. "Pornography Issues,"

b. Pornography Issues

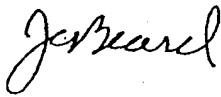

The following categories of material are considered "pornographic:"

- (1) materials in which the purpose is sexual arousal or gratification; or
- (2) the material contains nudity which means showing the human male or female genitals, pubic area or buttocks with less than a fully opaque covering, or showing the female breast with less than a fully opaque covering of any portion thereof below the top of the nipple (exposure through "see through" materials is considered nudity for purposes of this definition).

TO: Executive Staff Superintendents Boot Camp Commander Regional Directors	Policy Subject: Inmate Mail and Incoming Publications
	Policy Number: DC-ADM 803-2
	Policy Issue Date: December 2, 2005
Date of Issue: April 5, 2006	Authority:  Jeffrey A. Beard, Ph.D.	Effective Date: April 5, 2006

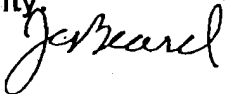

The purpose of this bulletin is to clarify Bulletin DC-ADM 803-1, with an effective date of January 1, 2006:

- The most basic criterion is that the "...purpose is sexual arousal or gratification..." This refers to the intent of the publisher in including the photograph or drawing. Publications that contain advertisements with partially clad models would not be considered pornography; these are typically meant to be reasonable for family viewing.
- If the publication or material has significant literary or educational value it may be approved on a case by case basis, taking into consideration educational programs the inmate is involved in, and the type of his/her offense (i.e. sexual offender). This includes art books that may feature nude pictures; again the basic purpose of these is NOT sexual arousal or gratification.
- To clarify the reference to, "...buttocks with less than a fully opaque covering:" photographs where the model is wearing a covering of some type, such as a thong, may be permitted, as long as the thong is "fully opaque."
- The policy and these clarifications also apply to publications, books, magazines, cartoons, and photographs sent by families, friends, and others.

- (8) The Department may change the control number for any reason upon notice to the attorney or court that requested it.
- (9) If, upon opening the envelope in the presence of the inmate, the staff member without reading the contents notices that the contents contain absolutely no legal material (contains only a publication readily available to the public with no handwritten notations from counsel), the staff member shall issue the contents to the inmate and complete a DC-121 Part 3, Employee Report of Incident, in accordance with Department policy 6.3.1, "Facility Security" for submittal to the Shift Commander and the Facility

C.S. §6602, when an inmate intends to submit prison conditions litigation and claim indigence, the inmate must provide the court with an application and a certified copy of his/her account statement for the six month period immediately preceding the filing of a complaint or notice of appeal. The facility business office shall ensure that the necessary account statement is provided to the court.
2. If a court enters an order requiring the assessment of filing fees, the business office shall comply with the order.
3. Initial partial payment deductions shall be sent to the court immediately. Subsequent monthly deductions shall be paid in accordance with the court order accompanied by appropriate paperwork reflecting the correct case name and number, the inmate name and number, and the amount of payment.

D. Collection of Restitution, Reparation, Fees, Costs, Fines and Penalties 42 Pa. C.S. §9728, Act 84 of 1998 (Act 84)

1. When the County Clerk of Court provides a copy(s) of an order(s) for restitution, reparation, fees, costs, fines, and/or penalties associated with the criminal proceedings, the records office shall file the original and shall forward a copy of the order to the business office of the facility having custody of the inmate. The court order, the DC-300B, Court Commitment Form, or supporting information, must indicate the status of the debt including the current balance due and any special conditions, which would effect payments.

2. The business office, through inmate account deductions, makes:
 - a. payments of 20% of the inmate's account balance and monthly income for restitution, reparation, fees, costs, fines and/or penalties associated with the criminal proceedings pursuant to 42 Pa. C.S. §9728, Act 84 of 1998, provided that the inmate has a balance that exceeds $10.00; and
 - b. payments of 10% of all the inmate's account balance and monthly income, for the Crime Victim's Compensation and Victim/Witness Services Funds, provided that the inmate has a balance that exceeds $10.00.
3. The business office shall send the funds deducted to the county probation department or other designated agency.

In the event that a court order states payment is required on or after parole or release, the Facility Records Office Supervisor/designee shall contact the court and request clarification of the court order (See Attachment A).

E. Act 96 of 1984, Act 27 of 1995, Act 35 of 1991, Act 86 of 2000, and Act 85 of 2002

The fees are imposed as part of the court costs for each Sentencing Event (as defined in Section VI.E.7. of this policy) based upon criminal acts occurring after June 30, 1984. The amount of the fees varies depending upon the date the inmate committed his/her criminal act. No fees are imposed upon Sentencing Events based on criminal acts prior to June 30, 1984. These fees are mandatory, even if the inmate will not be paroled.
2. An inmate is required to pay the specified fees before he/she can be paroled.
3. While the total amount to be collected is reflected on the chart in Section VI.E.4 below, it may be subdivided into these categories:
 - a. penalty assessment for the Crime Victims Compensation Fund;
 - b. penalty assessment for the Victim/Witness Services Fund; and
 - c. the judge may impose restitution owed to the Crime Victim's Compensation Fund.

4. The chart below provides the dates pursuant to the legislation that imposes the fees:

 - (1) It will be determined in accordance with sections VI.E.4. and VI.E.7. of this policy, at the inmate's initial reception, annual classification review or parole review, whichever comes first.
 - (2) The facility business office will deduct the amount that has been determined as owing for these fees from the total Act 84 amount and adjust the amount due for Act 84.

When an award or settlement occurs, the Chief Counsel's office will advise the Bureau of Administration. The Bureau of Administration will arrange to deduct the full amount owed from the proceeds.
2. When the amount of outstanding court ordered debt exceeds the monetary damage award or settlement, the Office of Chief Counsel will develop a plan for distributing the funds and notify the parties owed and the court of the proposed distribution. In accordance with Act 84 of 1998, any of the owed parties may seek a court order compelling a change in the proposed distribution.
3. When the amount of monetary damages exceeds all court ordered obligations, the remainder shall be used to satisfy any amount owed to a government party, including a judgement or any other cost or fee assessed against the inmate.
